

Executive Proclamation

State of South Dakota Office of the Governor

Whereas, Commander David P. Roundy has served as Eighth Western Rivers Director of Auxiliary since June 2000; and,

Whereas, Eighth Western Rivers encompasses 13 states, including the state of South Dakota; and,

Whereas, Commander Roundy was directly responsible for enhancing homeland security mission support and recreational boating safety in South Dakota; and,

Whereas, Commander Roundy significantly increased support of our Auxiliary divisions and flotillas by providing equipment and training; and,

Whereas, Commander Roundy gave unselfishly of his time and made it a point to strongly support Division 8 in South Dakota through his numerous visits during his watch; and,

Whereas, It is fitting and proper as governor of the state of South Dakota to thank Commander Roundy and recognize the contributions he has made to this area as director of the Coast Guard:

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim March 13, 2004, as in South Dakota, and wish him future success.

COMMANDER DAVID P. ROUNDY DAY

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-sixth Day of February in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Four.

M. Michael Rounds, Governor
